

HARRIS PUBLIC RELATIONS

Cultivating & Maintaining Relationships

Media Contact: Yvette N. Harris
786.897.8554

For Immediate Release-

The 26th Annual Staging of Miami Carnival on Sunday, October 10, 2010 is Set to Be One of the Biggest Cultural Festivals to be held in South Florida

Soca Heavy Weight Couple Bunji Garlin and Faye Lyons to Headline the Miami Carnival 2010 Concert at SunLife Stadium

Miami FL- October 2010-- The Miami Broward One Carnival Host committee is staging the 26th Annual Celebration of Miami Carnival on Sunday, October 10, 2010 at SunLife Stadium. This event which promises to be one of the largest cultural festivals is a time when unity is forged through music and culture. Everyone is invited to experience the colorful pageantry and infectious music of the Caribbean. Miss Miami Carnival, Shelissa Gomes and International Soca King

Machel Montano will be the celebrity grand marshals to lead the parade. The parade of bands and masqueraders will begin at 12 noon on 199th Street and 37th Ave., East on NW 199th Street and 26th Ave, left on NW 26th Ave to NW 203rd street into Sun Life Stadium festival area where patrons will enjoy the exhibit of colorful costumes, food and drinks from the Caribbean and an all-star line up of soca music's heavyweights. The impressive artist line up includes: Traffik, JW Blaze, Shal Marshal, Rikki Jai, TC, Buffy, Camille, Sir Oungku, Red Hot Flames, Rebels Band, T&TEC Gayatones, Jashan Huges, Kaushun Band, Tizzy, Sapphire, Neeshad Sultan, Oscar B, Andy Singh, CL, Blade. The concert will be headlined by International Ragga soca artist, Bunji Garlin and his wife three time Trinidad and Tobago Carnival Road March Champion, Faye Lyons. This powerhouse couple has been a major driving force behind soca music for almost a decade.

“There is an old adage that says it is always good to return home. On that note, I want to welcome the 2010 Miami Carnival home to its place of origin. After 24 years, there have been many significant changes to the area which now allows us to have a more professional relationship with the Carnival organization. We take pride in fostering a renewed venue for Miami Carnival in the City of Miami Gardens for 2010,” says Shirley Gibson, City of Miami Gardens Mayor.

-more-

Quote from Mario “

HARRIS PUBLIC RELATIONS

Cultivating & Maintaining Relationships

Quote from Dolphin Stadium PR

Special Note to Media:

Parade Route: 199th Street and 37th Ave., East on NW 199th Street and 26th Ave, left on NW 26th Ave to NW 203rd street into Sun Life Stadium

Tickets: Advance tickets $20. Children under 10 are free. To purchase tickets and to get more information visit www.miamibrowardcarnival.com or call 305.653.1877. Media inquiries and interviews with the artists please call 786.897.8854 or yvette@harrispublicrelations.com.

Sponsors include: Sun Life Stadium, Miami Dade County Cultural Affairs, City of Miami Gardens, Broward County, Trinidad & Tobago The true Caribbean, Western Union, vox3com, Hollywood Chrysler Jeep, Rob Lambulin's University Dodge, BMobile-Lime.

"With the support of the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs and the Cultural Affairs Council, the Miami-Dade County Mayor and Board of County Commissioners."

###